

Aquinnah Old Field Road

A bucolic 3.36 +/- acre wooded parcel in Aquinnah, offering privacy and natural beauty with a brook running through the property. A seasonal one-room camp, built in the 1970s, sits on the land — a rustic starting point for future plans or a simple retreat as-is. No well, septic, or electric systems are currently in place. A rare chance to own a substantial, wooded parcel in one of the Vineyard's most tranquil up-island settings.
